

Conservation trust appoints Silicon Valley tech leader to its Board

April 18, 2022

Robert Brevelle appointed to Board Of Directors

New Orleans, LA, April 18, 2022 (BUSINESS WIRE)— The Brevelle Conservation Trust (BCT) has appointed Robert Brevelle to its Board of Directors as the Member at Large.

“Robert is a passionate conservationist and outdoorsman with a keen understanding of what it takes to effectively manage large, diverse tracts of wildlife habitat,” said JJ Landry, Chairman of BCT.

“He is a respected leader in the international business community, and he has tirelessly donated thousands of hours of his time to various community and mentoring programs. This commitment to community and his exceptional background in business, finance, and history will help us manage these important conservation areas and cultural heritage sites.”

The BCT is a conservation group that was formed by the merging of the La Louisiane Land Trust and the Evangeline Conservancy. The BCT owns or manages thousands of acres of wildlife habitat, as well as, historical and cultural heritage sites. The BCT has been recognized for its economically and environmentally sustainable conservation programs and environmental stewardship. The BCT partners with other conservation groups and government agencies to include the National Park Service, National Forest Service, and the Department of Agriculture.

“I am honored to join such a historic organization that is committed to preserving, in perpetuity, these beautiful and historic sites,” said Robert Brevelle. “Land tells the story of America. It shaped us as a people and as a country. Today, it is the key to preserving our cultural identities, vital habitat for fish and wildlife, and a healthy future for generations to come.”

Robert is an award winning engineer, entrepreneur, and business leader. He enjoys spending his time with his family and friends in the great outdoors. He is an avid fisherman, hiker, hunter, and boater. His ranch and plantation have received awards from the Audubon Society, Ducks Unlimited, and National Wildlife Federation. If he’s not “out in the woods” or “in the swamp”, you can find Robert tending to his hobby vineyard and orchard.

Robert graduated with high honors with a bachelor and master degree in Computer Science and Engineering with a minor in Economics and Military History from the Illinois Institute of Technology. He earned an MBA from the University of Texas at Dallas, and he is in the final stages of the doctorate program in Management Sciences and Operations Research. Robert is a credentialed Project Management Professional (PMP) from the Project Management Institute, and he is a graduate of the Executive Leadership Program from the Johnson Graduate School of Management at Cornell University.

About BCT

For more information, visit brevelleconservationtrust.com.